WORK ON STADIUM WILL BE STARTED

Portion of Big Structure Will Be Completed Before Opening of Football Season.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Charlottesville, Va., June 16.—The erection of a part of the proposed stadium at the University of Virginia, and its completion before the football season next fall, is now assured. Lee Taylor, of Norfolk, the architect, has so far perfected his plans that they allow the immediate construction of three sections of the concrete stands. The work will be pushed in the summer and will be under the direction of Dr. W. A. Lambeth.

Although it had been hoped to erect a stand long enough to reach the natural embankment of the north side of Lambeth Field, from the present wooden bleachers to the now dilapidated reserved section, only a small part of this territory will be covered during the summer, the rest to be constructed in easy stages. Additions will be made in both ends, and there will eventually be seating capacity for 5,000 people. The part about to be constructed will cost $20,000 and will accommodate about 1,200. The stadium complete will cost $30,000.

Roy C. Mayston, of Memphis, Tenn., has been elected editor-in-chief of College Topics, the semi-weekly published by the General Athletic Association of the University of Virginia. He has been on the staff during the past year and has had experience in newspaper work before coming to the university.

Charles G. Giddings, of Atlanta, was appointed assistant editor-in-chief for next year. He also is a newspaper man by experience.

R. Granville Curry, of Staunton, is business manager for next year, with Lant Rader Slaven, of Lewisburg, W. Va., as his assistant.

College Topics will begin the collegiate year next session with excellent prospects. Ten associate editors will be appointed at the beginning of the year by the editor-in-chief, and the competitive system for the filling of positions on the staff for the succeeding year will be inaugurated.

C.; Dr. Hammer C. Irwin, W. D. Bass and J. C. Kelly, of Roanoke Rapids, N. C. The brides-

GOING FROM PLACE TO PLACE

Did Not Help Mrs. Warren, of McComb City, to Get Rid of Her Troubles, But Cardui Did.

McComb City, Miss.—"I feel it my duty to tell you," says Mrs. Mamie E. Warren, of this city, "how much good Cardui has done for me."

"Eight (8) years ago I had typhoid fever, and my health has been bad ever since."

"I tried all kinds of medicines, and even went from place to place, but could find no relief."

"I had nervous spells and weak spells. I was not able to even look after my house, and I suffered such terrible pains in my stomach and bowels."

"I read about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and bought a bottle. It did me so much good that I kept on taking it, and am better now than I have been since I had typhoid fever; am able to look after my house, and feel like a new woman."

Those who have tried Cardui know the most about it. If you need a tonic, won't you take advantage of the experience gained by others, and see if it will not do the same for you?

Your druggist sells and recommends it. See him about it to-day.
